PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Mr. Agnew joined the Charles Hawkins Co. as a broker in 2012 and served as Asset Manager and COO from 2013 until 2016 when he was named President. As President, he has two primary focuses. First, he is dedicated to maintaining, improving, and growing the brokerage services and property management departments of the company. Secondly, his responsibilities also include the oversight of a $500,000,000 portfolio of commercial real estate that totals approximately 8,500,000 square feet. In this capacity, he is focused on maintaining and growing this portfolio through acquisitions and development as well as prudent financial management and strategic guidance for the existing portfolio.

EDUCATION

Mr. Agnew was an Ingram Scholar at the Owen Graduate School of Management at Vanderbilt University and received an M.B.A in 2012. His academic concentration was Finance with an emphasis in Real Estate. In 2007, Mr. Agnew received a Master of Science in Engineering from The University of Texas at Austin while working as a graduate research assistant for the Center for Transportation Research. In 2004, Mr. Agnew received a Bachelor of Civil Engineering, summa cum laude, from Auburn University.

PRIOR EXPERIENCE

Prior to joining the Charles Hawkins Co., Mr. Agnew was an intern for Boyle Investment Company while he pursued an M.B.A. His duties primarily involved financial analysis and due diligence for a $100 million private equity fund targeting retail and office acquisitions throughout the southeast. Prior to working at Boyle, Mr. Agnew practiced for three years as a structural engineer for Stanley D. Lindsey & Assoc. in Brentwood, TN. His work involved the analysis and design of structural systems and foundations for a wide range of building types, with an emphasis on healthcare facilities.
